Description:

Review "...a beautifully illustrated edition....Anna-Marie Ferguson's pictures convey the mythic element superbly" -- Daily Express, London Newspaper, September 9, 2000

From the Author There has been humour, heartbreak, and breathtaking visions, and the continuous excitement of trying to capture the beauty of Malory's scenes in watercolour. In the quietest moments, I liked to imagine ghosts roosting in my studio - from distant figures who may have existed and inspired the legend, to the storytellers, artists, and their creations that have served it. There are rewards in such good company and I feel most privileged to have contributed to a tradition so close to my heart, and served a world of such beauty.....beauty with a serrated edge.
