Description:

With fourteen books and writing credits including New York, The Los Angeles Times, The Washington Post, Harper's Bazaar, and more, author Robert Masello knows how to get published. In Robert's Rules of Writing, he shares:

- 101 pithy writing lessons that help writers improve their work, save time, and increase productivity
- Fresh, irreverent advice on the writing life, from "Be a Tease" to "Skip the Starbucks" to "Strip Down to Your Briefs"
- Entertaining, useful instruction for all fiction writers, journalists, screenwriters, nonfiction writers, business people, and students

No matter how many writing books they already own, readers will welcome this novel approach to the writing life.
