Description:

Shortly after the abduction and brutal murder of legendary FBI agent John Coyle by a Russian hit squad, information surfaced that he was corrupt and his reputation was destroyed. But anyone who knew John Coyle knows that he had been framed, and by all accounts the only man who could have set him up was Big Dickey McVicker, a New York City underworld boss with ties to the Russian Mafia. For decades McVicker had been John Coyle's chief informant - but he was also Coyle's oldest and closest friend. Two years later, when Coyle's youngest and most troubled child, Jeremy, tries to find the truth about the father he barely knew, he unknowingly sets into motion a series of events that will unleash a cunning and twisted killer for hire with a score to settle, and put his entire family in jeopardy. It isn't long before the streets of New York are turned into a battleground. And when all is said and done - when heroes and villains alike have fallen - it will take an unlikely alliance to bring down an unstoppable killer bent on vengeance.
